thinks this is because the previous conventions have held in New York State, at Cornell, and Vassar. Harris, explained that in order to prepare a delegation it is necessary to organize it at several months in advance college represents one member the League and works on divisional project. A speaker is needed at each college to direct this work. When legations convene, the assembly is conducted exactly like regular League assembly in English, except for the opening address. At Geneva the opening address is given in French, while model convention it will be in English and interpreted into French.

Purpose Not Political

The purpose of the Model League is not as a political organization, but merely to assist the colleges with the preparation of the League of Nations. Although the United States is officially a member, the delegates at Geneva are not interested in the current situation of the League of Nations. They are interested in the League of Nations as a whole, and not in the current situation of the League of Nations.

Resolved: That the United States Should Take the Lead in Abolishing Extraterritoriality in China.

Those of the variety team who will probably debate are: J. Hutchison, '32; E. McCluskey, '32, and T. C. Condon, Jr., '31.

Five New Members are Elected to Press Club

Five men were elected to membership in the Press Club. At a regular meeting on Wednesday night, the following men were elected: J. Bremner, '31, Albert Kennon, Jr., '31, Edward E. Anselmi, '31, Walter C. Pierce, and Hocco G. Lapenta, all of '32.

At the same meeting the following men were dropped from the club because of irregular attendance: Stanley I. Cundy, John D. Morgan, Edward G. Wink, all of '30, and Ray R. Willauer, '31.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held on February 5, at which time work for the term will be outlined and Thomas Pemberton will give a talk on "College Publicity."

DR. LEWIS ELECTED TREASURER OF A.A.C.

He and His Family Lunched With President Hoover While in Washington

Dr. William Mather Lewis was elected treasurer of the Association of American Colleges at their annual meeting in Washington, D. C.

On February 19 there will be a debate with the Rutgers freshmen on the subject, "Resolved: That the evils of the machine age outweigh its benefits." This will be a dual debate with the negative sides of each team going to the contesting institutions.

The men who will take part in these debates will be chosen by separate trials from the group composed of the following freshmen: H. E. Strouse, R. C. Shriver, J. S. Finckey, R. E. Ecker, S. Lerner, J. Cercicola and A. Williams. Negotiations are being made with the Easton High School for a debate, to be held later in the season.

three classes, whose requirements are not filled, may continue on the quarter term basis.

There are a number of students in the junior and senior classes who have not completed their requirements. It is urged that all students who are doubtful of their status should report to the office at once to clear up their records.

Intramural activities will count only for two voluntary periods while varsity and freshman team activities may be substituted for the entire assignment.

A list of sophomore and freshman names and their grades will be posted on the bulletin board in the gymnasium during the week of January 29. Any corrections may be made at that time and then the grades for the semester will be sent to the Registrar's office.

Moravian String Quartet to Entertain at Vespers

Moravian College String Quartet will provide a musical program, including both instrumental and vocal selections, at the vesper service. The quartet will also give a concert at the college.

them about their experiences ten or more years ago. The subjects of the subjects' Announcement was made of instantly told of happenings which occurred in early childhood.

Illustrating post-hypnotic suggestion, the professor caused one man to give every evidence of mild madness.

GLEE CLUB PREPARES FOR COMING MEET

Club in Preparation for Intercollegiate Contest

The Lafayette college glee club under the direction of Professor J. Warren Erb is practicing regularly in preparation for the intercollegiate glee club contest which will take place in Philadelphia on February 27. The other competing colleges will be Penn State, Bucknell, Haverford, Moravian, and Juniata. Each entrant will be required to sing the prize song, "Hark, Jolly Shepherd"; an optional number, and one of the college's own songs. Mr. Erb will soon announce the numbers that the Lafayette club will sing.

DR. ZIEGLER TO TALK AT THREE MEETINGS

Will Speak Twice at Scranton, Once at Doylestown Within The Next Two Weeks

Doctor Carl W. Ziegler, of department of philosophy and education, will speak at three different gatherings within the next weeks. On January 18, he will dress the monthly meeting of College Club of Scranton, which will be held at the Century Club of that city. His subject will be "The Drama of Education." He will also speak at the Bucks County State at Doylestown, on January 25. His subject at that time will be, "Vitalizing the High School Curriculum." He will speak "Religion in Education" on Sunday evening, January 28, at Providence Presbyterian Church, Scranton.
